

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Special thanks to the Executive Secretary of the National Commission for Nomadic Education, Professor Bashir Usman and the entire Base 2 Project team at the Commission led by Dr. Umar Ardo.

Our gratitude goes to the amiable Chairman of the Mobile Education For Out-of-School Children Foundation, Dr. Kabiru Abdulkadir, the Executive Director, Mr. Jude Eziuka, the translators and the video production team at the Foundation.

Our profound appreciation goes to the Patron of the Mobile Education For Out-of-School Children Foundation, His Royal Highness, Alhaji (Dr) Yahaya Abubakir CFR, the Etsu Nupe for his unwavering support and encouragement which has positively impacted this Project.

We are also grateful to the Alternate Education Committee in the Federal House of Representatives for their partnership and in leading the way to changing the narrative of out of school children in Nigeria.

We acknowledge the Honourable Minister of Education Professor Tahir Mamman, the Minister of State for Education Dr. Yusuf Sununu, and the entire staff of the federal Ministry of Education for their support in this work.

We believe that together we shall eradicate the scourge of out of school children in our nation Nigeria.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Do not attempt more than the subjects you have paid for. If you do, your entire results will be cancelled.
2. Attempt only the correct subject you are meant to sit for. For example, if it is chemistry you want to write but you were wrongly entered for Mathematics, write the chemistry exam.
3. Do not use any other name different from the one you used for registration. If you do, it will be considered as malpractice and you will not be credited with any score.
4. Adhere strictly to the time given on the time-table. If your subject is supposed to be written in the morning, you cannot come in the afternoon to write the subject.
5. No senior student can sit for any subject meant for junior students.
6. Do not forget to click on "Submit" at the end of the questions so your subject can be marked.
7. Please take note to use comas in separating the information you enter in the "Student Login".

E.g., if your name is Bolanle and your surname is Ojo, your school name is Good Ideas Secondary School Abeokuta Ogun State.

It should come in the following format;

Bolanle, Ojo, Good Ideas Secondary School Abeokuta, ogun

No Abbreviations.

Your data and results will be mixed up if you do not adhere strictly to these instructions.

Those in the Federal Capital Territory should put "FCT".